Get a termite inspection and guarantee before the home is marketed!

A suggestion for all of our great listing agent friends. Get a termite inspection and guarantee before the house is put on the market. That way the issue is dealt with before it becomes an issue! Buyers hate surprises and termites can turn people off. But if its been dealt with ahead of time you can just have the treatment documentation available at the time of the home inspection. Plus it will be guaranteed for the new buyer. It peace- of-mind. It's a win, win!

If no termites are discovered during the termite inspection great, just show the exterminator's paperwork to the buyer for peace-of-mind.
